University Course Flag Statements

<sup>a</sup>Writing Flag courses are designed to give students experience with writing in an academic discipline. In this class, you can expect to write regularly during the semester, complete substantial writing projects, and receive feedback from your instructor to help you improve your writing. You will also have the opportunity to revise one or more assignments, and you may be asked to read and discuss your peers' work. You should therefore expect a substantial portion of your grade to come from your written work. Writing Flag classes meet the Core Communications objectives of Critical Thinking, Communication, Teamwork, and Personal Responsibility, established by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

<sup>b</sup>Independent Inquiry Flag courses are designed to engage you in the process of inquiry over the course of a semester, providing you with the opportunity for independent investigation of a question, problem, or project related to your major. You should therefore expect a substantial portion of your grade to come from the independent investigation and presentation of your own work.

I. Course Description

This course is the second course in the social policy curriculum area. Prerequisites include Government 310L and 312L (or their equivalents), an introductory economics course, and admission to the social work major. This course is designed to provide students with the ability to analyze contemporary social welfare policy issues and programs and to understand the relationship between social policy and social work practice. The course focuses on the historical, political, economic, and other social conditions that influence policy development in the United States. Specific policy areas that are discussed are those in which social workers play major roles: income maintenance (with a focus on social insurance and public assistance), health, mental health, child welfare, and aging. Policy issues and programs are addressed as they affect majority groups as well as populations at risk (e.g., children, people of color, people with disabilities, women, LGBTs) with a particular emphasis on social and economic justice. Students learn to use policy analysis tools in order to understand how policy influences practice and planning decisions and how social workers can influence social welfare policy.

II. Course Objectives

By the end of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Understand significant historical events and persons that influenced the field of social work and social welfare policy. (PB 25)
2. Analyze the connections between the history and contemporary structures of social policy. (PB 25)
3. Understand the impact of economics, politics, and social values on the identification of social problems and policy formation in the United States and the ways that issues of diversity (such as culture, class, gender, physical or mental ability, sexual orientation, and age) have been addressed. (PB 25)
4. Apply conceptual frameworks for analyzing the development of social welfare policy. (PB 25)
5. Define key concepts in social welfare policy (e.g., universal, residual, public assistance, social insurance, cash, in-kind). (PB 25)
6. Understand the major policies that form the foundation of social welfare policy in the U.S. (PB 25)
7. Apply relevant research frameworks for evaluating the effects of social welfare policy on national, state, and local populations and economically vulnerable subgroups. (PB 25)
8. Analyze the impact of social welfare policy in terms of social and economic justice and the promotion of social work values. (PB 25)
9. Discuss trends in comparative international social welfare policy. (PB 25)
10. Understand roles social workers play in the formation of social policy and the effects of social policies on social work practice. (PB 25 & PB 26)
11. Exercise policy advocacy skills at the legislative and organizational levels. (PB 26)

The University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work has been continuously accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) since 1952. In order to maintain our accreditation status, we engage in ongoing curriculum assessment to demonstrate compliance with CSWE's Education Policies and Accreditation Standards (EPAS). Several required courses in our curriculum are part of this ongoing assessment, including this course. Below is a list of the specific Education Policies (EP) and Practice Behaviors (PB) that are assessed in this course. The complete EPAS can be optioned from your Student Handbook.

EP 2.1.8 Engage in policy practice to advance social and economic well-being and to deliver effective social work services.

PB 25: Analyze, formulate, and advocate for policies that advance social well-being

Course objectives: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10

Course assignments: Class exercises, policy analysis and action project (policy analysis brief, editorial or letter to a legislator, testimony)

PB 26: Collaborate with colleagues and clients for effective policy action

Course objectives: 10 and 11

Course assignments: Class exercises, policy analysis and action project (policy analysis brief, editorial or letter to a legislator, testimony)

III. Teaching Methods

A variety of teaching methods will be used including interactive lectures (students are encouraged to ask questions and make comments during the lectures), readings, guest speakers, videos, class exercises, written assignments, student presentations, peer feedback from class members, interviews with people interested in and knowledgeable about policy issues, and, when possible, observation of meetings on policy-related issues.

IV. Required Reading

DiNitto, D. M., & Johnson, D. H. (2012). Essentials of social welfare: Politics and public policy. Boston: Pearson.

Rocha, C. J. (2007). Essentials of social work policy practice. Hoboken, NJ: John Wiley & Sons.

V. Policies

A. Policies Specific to This Course

1. Professional conduct: Your attendance, attention, and participation are expected for all class sessions. Daily attendance will be taken, and the policy on pop quizzes will be strictly applied. Class participation includes reading all assigned materials prior to the class session and actively engaging in class discussions and exercises. Lively class discussion is encouraged. Respectful communication is necessary to the learning environment. Please turn off cell phone ringers and refrain from texting and other non-class activities. Students are also expected to observe professional codes of conduct with regard to confidentiality, dress, language, and other matters and exercise good judgment while interacting with agencies, organizations, and other entities on assignments for this course.
2. Submitting assignments: (a) All papers should be word-processed and usually in 12- point font, with single-, 1.5-, or double-spacing, depending on the assignment, and with reasonable margins. (b) Submit all assignments in hard copy (do not submit them electronically unless asked to do so). (c) Assignment due dates are noted in the course calendar. All assignments are due at the start of the class period. Assignments submitted after the start of class will be considered late for that day unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Except in the case of serious illness or emergency, five points will be deducted for each day an assignment is late (this includes weekend days). (d) The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) is the style manual to be used unless another referencing style is more appropriate for the assignment. (e) Appropriate referencing of citations (authors, titles, page numbers, etc.) is required. This includes giving due credit to others when indirect quotes (paraphrasing) and direct (verbatim) quotes are used. Short direct quotes (less than 40 words) must be placed in quotation marks. Long direct quotes (40 or more words) must be indented. Paraphrasing requires more than changing a word or two in a sentence. Failure to give due to credit to others will result in a “0” for the assignment and/or an “F” for the course. Plagiarism is a form of scholastic dishonesty and will be addressed as such (see item 4 below). If you do not know how to cite appropriately, please learn before you submit any assignments.

3. Scholastic Dishonesty: Scholastic dishonesty may result in a report to the Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Programs in the School of Social Work, the Dean of the School of Social Work, and/or Student Judicial Services. Students may receive an “F” for the course and other sanctions in accordance with University policies, including dismissal from the University. Also see item 4 on scholastic dishonesty under University Policies below.
4. Course modifications: Should any modifications or changes need to be made to the course (e.g., calendar, assignments), students will be notified in class and/or by e-mail. Students should check their e-mail frequently, and students who are absent from class should check on announcements made in class during their absence.
5. Use of Blackboard: The course Blackboard site will be used for various purposes (posting some documents, grades, etc.). Some course communication will also be done via e-mail. Also see item 7 on e-mail under University Policies below.

B. University Policies

1. THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS HONOR CODE. The core values of The University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the university is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community.
2. PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT IN CLASS. The professor expects students to act as professionals in class. This means students should arrive on time for class, be prepared to participate in the class discussion, and show respect for one another’s opinions. We will not, nor should we, always agree with one another. In this environment we should be exposed to diverse ideas and opinions, and sometime we will not agree with the ideas expressed by others. However, the professor does require that students engage one another with respect and professionalism.
3. POLICY ON SOCIAL MEDIA AND PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION. Public social networks are not private. Even when open only to approved or invited members, users cannot be certain that privacy will exist among the general membership of sites. If social work students choose to participate in such forums, please assume that anything posted can be seen, read, and critiqued. What is said, posted, linked to, commented on, uploaded, subscribed to, etc., can be accessed and archived, posing potential harm to professional reputations and prospective careers.

Social work students who use social media (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, etc.) and other forms of electronic communication (i.e., blogs, etc.) must be mindful of how their communication may be perceived by clients, colleagues, faculty, and others. Social work students are expected to make every effort to minimize material which could be considered inappropriate for a professional social worker in training. Because of this, social work students are advised to manage security settings at their most private levels and avoid posting information/photos or using any language that could jeopardize their professional image. Students are asked to consider the amount of personal information posted on these sites and are obliged to block any client access to involvement in the students’ social networks. Client material should not be referred to in any form of electronic media, including any information that might lead to the identification of a client or compromise client confidentiality in any way. Additionally, students must critically evaluate any material that is posted regarding community agencies and professional relationships, as certain material could violate the standards set by the School of Social Work, the Texas Code of Conduct for Social Workers, and/or the NASW Code of Ethics. Social work students should consider that they will be representing professional social work practice as well as the University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work program while in the classroom, the university community, and the broader area communities.

- 4. POLICY ON SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY. Students who violate University rules on scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and/or dismissal from the University. Since such dishonesty harms the individual, all students, and the integrity of the University, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced. For further information, the student may refer to the Web Site of the Student Judicial Services, Office of the Dean of Students (<http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/sjs/>).
- 5. DOCUMENTED DISABILITY STATEMENT. Any student who requires special accommodations must obtain a letter that documents the disability from the Services for Students with Disabilities area of the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement (471- 6259 voice or 471-4641 TTY for users who are deaf or hard of hearing). Present the letter to the professor at the beginning of the semester so that needed accommodations can be discussed. The student should remind the professor of any testing accommodations no later than five business days before an exam. For more information, visit <http://www.utexas.edu/diversity/ddce/ssd/>.
- 6. RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS. By UT Austin policy, students must notify the professor of a pending absence at least fourteen days prior to the date of observance of a religious holy day. If the student must miss a class, an examination, a work assignment, or a project in order to observe a religious holy day, the professor will give the student an opportunity to complete the missed work within a reasonable time after the absence.
- 7. USE OF E-MAIL FOR OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO STUDENTS. Email is recognized as an official mode of university correspondence; therefore, students are responsible for reading their email for university and course-related information and announcements. Students are responsible to keep the university informed about changes to their e-mail address. Students should check their e-mail regularly and frequently—daily, but at minimum twice a week—to stay current with university-related communications, some of which may be time-sensitive. Students can find UT Austin’s policies and instructions for updating their e-mail address at <http://www.utexas.edu/its/policies/emailnotify.php>.
- 8. SAFETY. As part of professional social work education, students may have assignments that involve working in agency settings and/or the community. As such, these assignments may present some risks. Sound choices and caution may lower risks inherent to the profession. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of and adhere to policies and practices related to agency and/or community safety. Students should notify the professor regarding any safety concerns.
- 9. BEHAVIOR CONCERNS ADVICE LINE (BCAL). If students are worried about someone who is acting differently, they may use the Behavior Concerns Advice Line to discuss by phone their concerns about another individual’s behavior. This service is provided through a partnership among the Office of the Dean of Students, the Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC), the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), and The University of Texas Police Department (UTPD). Call 512-232-5050 or visit <http://www.utexas.edu/safety/bcal>.
- 10. EMERGENCY EVACUATION POLICY. Occupants of buildings on the UT Austin campus are required to evacuate and assemble outside when a fire alarm is activated or an announcement is made. Please be aware of the following policies regarding evacuation:

- Familiarize yourself with all exit doors of the classroom and the building. Remember that the nearest exit door may not be the one you used when you entered the building.
- If you require assistance to evacuate, inform the professor in writing during the first week of class.
- In the event of an evacuation, follow the professor's instructions.
- Do not re-enter a building unless you are given instructions by the Austin Fire Department, the UT Austin Police Department, or the Fire Prevention Services office.

VI. Course Assignments and Student Evaluation

Student achievement in meeting course objectives will be based on (a) quizzes and (b) a policy analysis and action project.

A. Quizzes

It is important to keep up with the reading assignments in this class and to come to class prepared to discuss the readings. To facilitate this taking place on a consistent basis, five “pop” quizzes will be given during the semester (i.e., prior notice of dates will not be given). The lowest grade will be dropped. The four highest grades will each count as 5% of your final grade (20% total). Each quiz will contain 10 to 20 questions. Each quiz will cover the readings for that class day and the previous class day's work as applicable (readings, lectures, discussion, guest speaker). Questions will be multiple choice, true or false, matching, fill-in-the blank, &/or short answer items. Since one quiz grade will be dropped, NO make-up quizzes will be given unless warranted by a documented serious illness or emergency that results in a student missing more than one quiz.

B. Policy Analysis and Action Project

The policy analysis and action project is intended to help students learn more about the legislative process, provide each student an opportunity to analyze an important contemporary legislative issue of particular interest to her or him, and to develop skills in policy practice, including analysis, writing, presentation, and advocacy. Since written and oral communication is critical for social work practice, the project is composed of (1) a policy brief, (2) either a newspaper editorial or letter to a legislator, (3) written and oral legislative testimony, (4) critiques of classmates' testimony. The assignment is also intended to address the EPAS competency and practice behaviors designated for this course and meet the course's writing and independent inquiry flags. The project components will be graded together and count as 60% of the final grade. Begin by selecting a bill introduced into the 83rd session of the Texas legislature. The Texas Legislature Online website (<http://www.capitol.state.tx.us>) is a good way to search for a bill, etc., and it is imperative that you acquaint yourself with the very useful information that it contains. The course instructor and TA will help you get started with the process. Select a bill that addresses child welfare, health care, public assistance, mental health services, services to people with developmental disabilities, aging, or another social welfare issue of interest to you. Identify legislators, organizations, groups, and committees that have worked on the bill or issue or are currently working on the issue(s) or in the field the bill addresses. You may wish to work with groups, organizations, or committees involved in the issue. Become familiar with the bill and related proposals to modify/amend the bill or replace it with other legislation. Investigate the bill's background and legislative history. Conduct a literature review and identify scholarly references and other reports or studies that address the bill and provide evidence about what the effects of the bill might be. Seek the opinions or positions of those with various views on the issue and determine which groups and individuals (e.g., state legislators, professional groups, citizen advocacy groups) support, oppose, or are neutral on the issue and their rationale, including any evidence they believe supports their position. Students may work with a partner or in a small group to gather and discuss information; in fact, you are encouraged to do so as part of the learning process, but each student must independently compose her or his brief, editorial or letter, and testimony. It may help to approach this project by thinking of yourself as a policy analyst employed by a social welfare agency (governmental or private) or a think tank, an aide working for a state legislator, or a staff member of a legislative committee. In any case, your job is to educate others about the bill and the issue it addresses and provide reasons for supporting, not supporting, or remaining neutral on the bill.

Handouts will be provided and class sessions will address how to identify a bill; write a policy brief, editorial, and letter to a legislator; how to write and deliver testimony; and how to provide feedback to classmates. All written products should be in 12-point font. Use Arial font. Your policy brief should be 6 to 7 tightly written pages (not including references and appendices [if any]) with 1.5 line spacing and formatted and written in a way that will engage readers. Cite at least 10 scholarly references. In addition, you may also cite relevant newspaper articles or other credible popular media. You are encouraged to use graphs, charts, quotes, vignettes, or other devices to make the brief informative and appealing to read. Your editorial should be 700 to 750 words. Your letter should be a full one-page including appropriate salutation. Your testimony should be written in such a way that it can be delivered in three minutes. In addition to submitting your brief, editorial or letter to a legislator, and testimony in written form to the instructor, the class will be divided into groups of three and each member will be asked to critique the written testimony of the two other class members so that each class member can improve his or her testimony before delivering it to the class. Provide at least one sentence that describes the strengths of your classmates' testimony and two to three that suggest how the testimony might be strengthened or improved. Provide the critiques to your two classmates and to the instructor. Be sure to include your name on the critique.

If you do not submit each assignment at the start of the class on which it is due, it will be considered late. The more effort you put into your work the first time you submit it, the more meaningful or useful the feedback will be. Revise each assignment as needed before submitting your final work unless no suggestions for improvement have been made.

C. Attending Meetings at the Texas Legislature during 2014 (the interim year between the 83rd & 84th Texas Legislatures)

Each student must select and attend 4 meetings (i.e., subcommittee) or sessions (House or Senate) of the Texas Legislature, for a minimum of one hour each (type of meeting and topic(s) of interest is up to the prerogative of the student), and then turn in a hard copy of a two page reflection paper about what s/he observed and learned. All reflection papers are due by the last day of class and are worth 2.5 points each for a total of 10 points (10% of final grade).

D. Active Participation & Attendance

Roll will be taken each time class meets and students are expected to be in attendance, if at all possible. Likewise, as expressed earlier in this syllabus, students are expected to actively participate in class discussions and activities in a respectful, professional manner. Active participation (5%) and attendance (5%) will make up a total of 10% of your grade for the semester.

Assignment Due Dates

January 30: Plan for policy analysis and action project

February 20: Part 1 of the policy brief: (a) title, (b) brief identification of the bill and what it is intended to do, (c) problem bill is intended to address and context/background/history of the bill (use references as appropriate), (d) description of the bill and what it intends to accomplish

March 20: Revision of Part 1 and submission of Part 2 of the policy brief: (a) analysis of the bill using available scholarly and other credible literature and viewpoints of representatives of at least three constituent groups, (b) recommendations for improving/modifying or replacing the bill (use references as needed), (c) a brief conclusion, (d) references cited and other resources, (e) appendices (if needed). Also write a short Executive Summary to be placed at the beginning of the policy brief.

March 27: Editorial or letter to a legislator

April 8: Draft of Testimony

April 15: Written Critiques of Testimony

May 1: All Final Written Work Due

Criteria for Evaluating Policy Brief

1. Completeness and thoroughness: How fully has the topic been addressed? Has it been sufficiently researched using scholarly references and other resources (e.g., databases), interviews, and other means (e.g., webinars, meeting attendance) to gain differing perspectives and full knowledge of the issue? Does the paper leave the reader with the impression that major questions have been considered, or are important issues left unaddressed? Has the paper or other product been carefully proofread? 25 points maximum
2. Organization and clarity: Is the brief well written and logically organized? Are there appropriate transitions between sentences, paragraphs, and sections? Are the sentence structure, syntax, and grammar of appropriate quality? Have descriptive headings (and subheadings if needed) been used to improve organization? Are issues addressed in a way that someone unfamiliar with them as well as someone knowledgeable about them can understand? 25 points maximum
3. Referencing: Are there a sufficient number of appropriate references, including at least 10 scholarly references? Has referencing been done according to the American Psychological Association or other appropriate referencing style? Are the references well integrated in the text? Are short direct quotations noted in quotation marks; are longer direct quotations indented, and are page numbers or paragraph numbers for non-paginated electronic sources indicated for all direct quotations? Are indirect quotes paraphrased sufficiently? 25 points maximum
4. Originality and Creativity: Does the work demonstrate that different viewpoints have been considered, compared, and contrasted and that the writer has a thorough understanding of the issues? Has the student used his or her analytical skills in a way that suggests more than a restatement of what others have said about this issue? Has the student suggested points that others have not addressed? Is the work prepared in a way that will gain the interest and attention of the intended audience(s)? 25 points maximum

Criteria for Evaluating Editorial, Letter to a Legislator, and Testimony

1. Quality of writing, including organization, grammar, and syntax
2. Extent to which major points are addressed
3. How compelling your written arguments are
4. Compelling/convincing delivery of your verbal testimony

Grading Scale

The final course grade will be based on the following scale:

94.0 and Above	A
90.0 to 93.999	A-
87.0 to 89.999	B+
84.0 to 86.999	B
80.0 to 83.999	B-
77.0 to 79.999	C+
74.0 to 76.999	C
70.0 to 73.999	C-
67.0 to 69.999	D+
64.0 to 66.999	D
60.0 to 63.999	D-
Below 60.0	F
