SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE I

I. Course Description

This course provides an introduction to social work practice methodology and professional use of self from a generalist perspective for social work practice with diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities in conjunction with field education.

Prerequisites: This course must be taken concurrently with Field Instruction I. It is either taken with or after Basic Dynamics of Organizations and Communities, Basic Dynamics of Individuals and Families and Social Policy I. It is a prerequisite for Social Work Practice II and Field Instruction II.

II. Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course the students will be able to:

1. Identify and begin to apply social work values and principles of ethical decision making as articulated by the NASW Code of Ethics. (PB 2, 8)

2. Demonstrate an understanding of professional use of self and awareness of personal values in the development and maintenance of purposeful, problem solving relationships with multiple levels of client systems, as well as cooperative and constructive relationships with agency staff, other professionals and community members. (PB 2, 3, 7)
3. Utilize professional communication skills, supervision and consultation in the effective and ethical provision of services to diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities. (PB 2, 5, 6, 30)
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the impact of organizational and community context on service delivery through the in depth analysis of the assigned field agency. (PB 29, 36)
5. Demonstrate knowledge of the historical roots and major developments of the social work profession and its commitment to promote social and economic justice for populations at risk. (PB 5, 8)
6. Systematically apply a transtheoretical and eco-systems framework to engage client systems in identifying target systems and goals, and in analyzing, implementing and evaluating interventions that enhance client system strengths, capacities, assets and resources in relation to their environment. (PB 33, 34, 38, 39)
7. Recognize the influence of socioeconomic status, age, developmental level, gender, culture, race, ethnicity, physical status, sexual orientation and spiritual beliefs on assessment, planning, intervention and evaluation at all levels of practice. (PB 32, 33, 34, 38)
8. Demonstrate familiarity with basic concepts and methodology related to work with small groups used in agency, organization and community settings. (PB 29, 31, 35, 36)
9. Identify the importance of empirically based knowledge to evaluate and improve practice, policy and social service delivery. (PB 35, 36, 37)

The School of Social Work has been continuously accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) since 1952. In order to maintain our accreditation status, we engage in ongoing curriculum assessment to demonstrate compliance with CSWE's Education Policies and Accreditation Standards (EPAS). III. Teaching Methods

A variety of teaching methods and approaches will be utilized to support a collaborative community that addresses the full range of learning styles. Methods include: lectures, class discussions, experiential exercises, case examples, video presentations, and guest speakers. Additionally, this course will incorporate the creative teaching strategy of a sequential video taped role play of a case during several class sessions, that will provide students with the opportunity to practice and/or observe direct practice skills.

V. Course Requirements

Detailed specific guidelines for the following assignments will be handed out by the Instructor in sequence. All assignments will be discussed in detail in class and students are encouraged to meet with the Instructor should they have any questions about the assignments. Grading sheets with point allocation will be provided with the assignment guidelines. All assignments will be graded on depth and quality of required content, creativity, critical thinking skills, overall professionalism and quality of writing. Student should follow the APA guidelines for writing assignments.

#1 – Comprehensive Field Agency Analysis (75 pts.)

This assignment is designed to thoroughly acquaint the student and classmates with his/her field placement agency. A five-six page paper and oral presentation are required. Detailed guidelines will be provided during the Sept. 3rd. class –(Date Due: Oct. 1st)

#2 – Reflective Paper – Application of Readings (25 pts.)

. Guidelines will be provided on Oct. 15th. (Date Due: Oct. 22nd)

#3 - Midterm Exam (125 pts.)

Covering the readings and class lectures, content to date. A review guide will be provided on Oct. 22nd . (Date of In Class Exam: Oct. 29th)

#4 -Videotaped Interview and Critique (75 pts.)

Each student will do a videotaped interview outside of class and provide a written critique to the Instructor. Also, students will participate in a peer/Instructor critique session outside of class, during the week of Nov.12th - 19th. Detailed instructions for each of these activities and tasks will be provided on Oct. 29th. (Date Due for Tape and Written Critique: Nov. 12th)

#5 - Multidimensional Assessment (100 pts.)

A multidimensional case assessment of a client or client system in field is required. The Instructor will provide consultation on this assignment, during the Liaison visits to the agency at Midterm. Detailed instructions will be provided. (Date Due: Week of Dec. 1st.-Dec. 3rd)

#6 - Final Examination (100 pts.)

A take home exam integrating readings, class lectures, and self- assessments since the Midterm will be given to students on Dec. 3rd during the last class. The completed exam may be turned in on or before Tuesday December 9th at 5 p.m.)

AND JUST AS IMPORTANT

#7 - Class Participation (100 pts.)

For effective social work practice, it is imperative that the skills of leadership, assertiveness and critical thinking are encouraged and developed. Therefore, an expectation of all students in this class includes evidence of and willingness to participate in class activities and discussions. Students are expected to express their thoughts, opinions, and questions and to make comments relevant to the course material and field experience. Reflections and dialogue between both Instructor and student and between students are encouraged. Students are also encouraged to offer field and/or life experience as applications of points discussed.

Attendance in class and punctuality are aspects of the participation grade. In an effort to foster skill and comfort in self -evaluation (a critical component of practice evaluation) and to promote personal responsibility, students will complete a Participation Self Rating Scale. (75 pts.)

Additionally, students will be required to attend a community task group meeting during the semester and be prepared to discuss the experience in class, as a part of the total participation grade. Details for this community assignment will be provided in class on Sept. 3rd. (25 pts.)

Please note that you will not earn credit for MSSW courses if your final grade falls below a ‘C’. You must earn a ‘C’ or above for credit to be given for the course.

VI. Class Policies

Attendance and Reliability

It is important for social work professionals to be reliable in both attendance and in meeting deadlines. Therefore, class attendance is expected for the full three hours of class and the additional hour of field seminar. Assignments are required to be turned in on time. Students will lose 5 points per calendar day that an assignment is late. Any adjustments in assignment due dates and/or examination dates MUST be approved by the Instructor at least 24 hours PRIOR to the regularly scheduled date.

Students who fail to attend class on a regular basis (missing more than two classes without prior approval by the Professor and/or., medical documentation) will begin the Level Review Process. Repeated late arrivals to class may be considered as an absence.

Confidentiality

Information shared in class about agencies and clients is considered to be confidential according to the NASW Code of Ethics regarding the sharing of information for supervisory purposes. Agencies are aware that de-identified information is shared in class for this purpose. However, discussions outside of class/seminar with individuals who are not members of this cohort, regarding information shared in class about clients, supervisors, or agencies is a breach of confidentiality. Breach of confidentiality is a ground for removal from a field placement.

Technology In The Classroom

Laptop computers and other devices are discouraged from use during class, in an effort to maintain an atmosphere of dialogue, engagement, and demonstration of skill building. Class handouts are thorough and time is available for adequate note taking during lectures and presentations. A laptop is permitted if needed as a necessary accommodation with documentation from the Services for Students with Disabilities office.

The University of Texas Honor Code

The core values of The University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the university is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community.

Professional Conduct in Class

The professor expects students to act like professionals in class. This means students should arrive on time for class, be prepared to participate in the class discussion, and show respect for one another's opinions. We will not, nor should we, always agree with one another. In this environment we should be exposed to diverse ideas and opinions, and sometime we will not agree with the ideas expressed by others. However, the professor does require that students engage one another with respect and professionalism.

Classroom Civility

A course brings together a group of diverse individuals with various backgrounds. Students are influenced and shaped by such factors as ethnicity, gender, sex, physical abilities, religious and political beliefs, national origins, and sexual orientations, among others. We expect to learn from each other in an atmosphere of positive engagement and mutual respect. Social Work deals with complex and controversial issues. These issues may be challenging and uncomfortable, and it would be impossible to offer a substantive classroom experience that did not include potentially difficult conversations relating to challenging issues.

Unanticipated Distress

Students may experience unexpected and/or distressing reactions to course readings, videos, conversations, and assignments. If so, students are encouraged to inform the instructor. The instructor can be responsive and supportive regarding students' participation in course assignments and activities, but students are responsible for communicating clearly what kind of support is desired. If counseling is needed, students can contact a service provider of their choosing, including the UT Counseling Center at 512-471-3515 or online at www.utexas.edu/student/cmhc/.

Policy on Scholastic Dishonesty

Students who violate University rules on scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and/or dismissal from the University. Since such dishonesty harms the individual, all students, and the integrity of the University, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced. For further information, the student may refer to the Web Site of the Student Judicial Services, Office of the Dean of Students (<http://www.utexas.edu/depts/dos/sjs/>).

When using information from other sources, all references and the bibliography should conform to current APA style (refer to School of Social Work handout). Instances of plagiarism will be dealt with according to University policy.

Documented Disability Statement

Any student who requires special accommodations must obtain a letter that documents the disability from the Services for Students with Disabilities area of the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement (471-6259 voice or 471-4641 TTY for users who are deaf or hard of hearing). Present the letter to the professor at the beginning of the semester so that needed accommodations can be discussed. The student should remind the professor of any testing accommodations no later than five business days before an exam. For more information, visit <http://www.utexas.edu/diversity/ddce/ssd/>.

Religious Holidays

By UT Austin policy, students must notify the professor of a pending absence at least fourteen days prior to the date of observance of a religious holy day. If the student must miss a class, an examination, a work assignment, or a project in order to observe a religious holy day, the professor will give the student an opportunity to complete the missed work within a reasonable time after the absence.

Use of E-Mail for Official Correspondence to Students

Email is recognized as an official mode of university correspondence; therefore, students are responsible for reading their email for university and course-related information and announcements. Students are responsible to keep the university informed about changes to their e-mail address. Students should check their e-mail regularly and frequently—daily, but at minimum twice a week—to stay current with university-related communications, some of which may be time-sensitive. Students can find UT Austin’s policies and instructions for updating their e-mail address at <http://www.utexas.edu/its/policies/emailnotify.php>.

The student will be expected to use sound professional judgment about what is appropriate to discuss in email as opposed to an office appointment.

Safety

As part of professional social work education, students will have assignments that involve working in agency settings and/or the community. As such, these assignments may present some risks. Sound choices and caution may lower risks inherent to the profession. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of and adhere to policies and practices related to agency and/or community safety. Students should notify the professor regarding any safety concerns.

Behavior Concerns Advice Line (BCAL)

If students are worried about someone who is acting differently, they may use the Behavior Concerns Advice Line to discuss by phone their concerns about another individual’s behavior. This service is provided through a partnership among the Office of the Dean of Students, the Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC), the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), and The University of Texas Police Department (UTPD). Call 512-232-5050 or visit <http://www.utexas.edu/safety/bcal>.

Emergency Evacuation Policy

Occupants of buildings on the UT Austin campus are required to evacuate and assemble outside when a fire alarm is activated or an announcement is made. Please be aware of the following policies regarding evacuation:

- Familiarize yourself with all exit doors of the classroom and the building. Remember that the nearest exit door may not be the one you used when you entered the building.
- If you require assistance to evacuate, inform the professor in writing during the first week of class.
- In the event of an evacuation, follow the professor’s instructions.
- Do not re-enter a building unless you’re given instructions by the Austin Fire Department, the UT Austin Police Department, or the Fire Prevention Services office.

Policy on Social Media and Professional Communication

Public social networks are not private. Even when open only to approved or invited members, users cannot be certain that privacy will exist among the general membership of sites. If social work students choose to participate in such forums, please assume that anything posted can be seen, read, and critiqued. What is said, posted, linked to, commented on, uploaded, subscribed to, etc., can be accessed and archived, posing potential harm to professional reputations and prospective careers.

Social work students who use social media (i.e. Facebook, Twitter, etc.) and other forms of electronic communication (i.e. blogs, etc.) must be mindful of how their communication may be perceived by clients, colleagues, faculty, and others. Social work students are expected to make every effort to minimize material which could be considered inappropriate for a professional social worker in training. Because of this, social work students are advised to manage security settings at their most private levels and avoid posting information/photos or using any language that could jeopardize their professional image. Students are asked to consider the amount of personal information posted on these sites and are obliged to block any client access to involvement in the students' social networks. Client material should not be referred to in any form of electronic media, including any information that might lead to the identification of a client or compromise client confidentiality in any way. Additionally, students must critically evaluate any material that is posted regarding community agencies and professional relationships, as certain material could violate the standards set by the School of Social Work, the Texas Code of Conduct for Social Workers, and/or the NASW Code of Ethics.

Social work students should consider that they will be representing professional social work practice as well as the University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work program while in the classroom, the university community, and the broader area communities.
