SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE IN SCHOOLS

I. Standardized Course Description

This course will focus on the provision of school-based social services to children and adolescents and their families and the roles social workers play in delivering such services. Content discussed will include the historical context of school-based social services and school social work; relevant national and state legislation and policies; a comparison of models used in the provision of school-based services; specific techniques used by school social workers in delivering culturally competent social services and in promoting social and economic justice. Emphasis will be on the effective delivery of intervention strategies to at-risk populations and on the development of quality prevention programs in a school setting.

II. Standardized Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course the students will be able to:

1. Explain the historical context of school-based social services and school social work from the perspectives of the history of public school education, social welfare, and the profession of social work;
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the unique aspects of providing social services in the contexts of school and educational settings.
3. Identify and analyze relevant national and state legislation and policies that have an impact on the delivery of school-based social services to children and families;
4. Identify and analyze personal and professional social work ethical and value dilemmas that may occur while providing social services in school settings;
5. Compare and analyze different organizational and practice models used in the provision of school-based services;
6. Demonstrate familiarity with culturally relevant techniques and strategies for intervention with individuals, groups, families and communities within the school practice setting;
7. Discuss relevant research and program evaluation data relevant to the provision of school-based social services and be able to develop and implement methods for evaluating school-based social services;
8. Understand and apply information about the needs of diverse populations, including ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, class, gender and physical emotional abilities, the impacts of such diversity on individuals and their families in school setting, and the roles that social workers can play in helping such settings meet diverse needs and promote social and economic justice to actual case situations involving children and their families in school settings.

III. Teaching Methods

This course is designed to provide the student with a meaningful learning environment to acquire skills and knowledge about Social Work practice in schools. The instructor believes in an active learning approach, an approach asserting that the learning process is one in which reciprocity between the instructor and students is a necessity. Teaching methods include a combination of lecture, group discussion, small group experience, social problem and current event analysis, guest speakers, readings/videos and class presentations. Students are expected to complete assigned readings prior to each class period. Class instruction is designed to encourage student participation and input. It is imperative for effective practitioners to engage in an ongoing process of enhancing awareness of self. In this spirit, I ask that you mull over information and apply it to yourself as a developing professional. You are encouraged to ask questions, stay curious, consider differing perspectives.

Feedback is crucial in the field of Social Work and I am open to your giving feedback to me as we learn alongside one another in this course. To do so, contact me and schedule a time to meet.

IV. READINGS

2 REQUIRED Textbooks:

Bailey, Becky A., PH.D. (2000). Easy to Love, Difficult to Discipline: The 7 Basic Skills for Turning Conflict into Cooperation. New York, NY: Harper Collins Publishers.

Porter, Susan Eva, PH.D. (2013). Bully Nation: Why America's Approach to Childhood Aggression is Bad for Everyone. St. Paul, MN: Paragon House.

Optional Text Resources:

Dupper, D.R. (2003). School Social Work- Skills and interventions for effective practice. Hoboken, NJ: John Wiley & Sons, Inc

Openshaw, L. (2008). Social Work in Schools- Principles and practice. New York, NY: The Guildford Press

Additional required readings will be supplied to students via Canvas or in class:

Additional readings from other books, journal articles and news sources will be available on UT Canvas in the folder corresponding to the week assigned or handed out in class the week prior to due date.

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Your grade for this course will be based upon the following five assignments. Students are strongly encouraged to attend all class meetings. Participation is viewed as a necessity for learning through an exchange of information between students and also between instructor and students. Additionally, students are encouraged to meet with the instructor to review their individual progress in the class, ask questions regarding class content, and also discuss their goals and future directions in the social work profession.

For all writing assignments submitted for this course:

Be sure to proofread your paper for grammar, spelling and correct use of APA (6th ed.) format. The content of student papers is important and thus a major part of the grade, however, paper grades will also be based on organization, grammar, spelling, punctuation and correct use of APA (6th ed.) style. Content, clarity, creativity and professionalism in writing will be considered when grading assignments.

Undergraduate students are encouraged to use the Undergraduate Writing Center for assistance with their writing skills and graduate students can seek help from the graduate writing coordinator.

1. Culturally Responsive Practitioner Development: Self-Reflection Paper (15%) - Due February 10, 2020

This assignment asks you to examine with curiosity your cultural self- what drives you, what shapes your worldview, and what influences your approach to engaging others. This process of self-reflection through guided questions will provide you with a glimpse into your implicit biases and in turn, better prepare you for working within a school system and with culturally diverse students/families/colleagues.

To prepare for this self- reflection paper, you will read Chapter 4 from Zaretta Hammond's text, Culturally Responsive Teaching and the Brain- Promoting Authentic Engagement and Rigor Among Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students.

NOTES:

- After completing the chapter, you will reflect and respond to a list of guided questions that will be handed out in class on 1-27-2020 (Chapter will also be posted on CANVAS).
- The paper should be typed (double-spaced) and stapled.
- Be certain to put your name and Class Section (SW 387R or SW 360K) at the top right hand of paper.
- Undergraduate Students: Paper length 3-4 pages (see handout in class).
- Graduate Students: Paper length 5-6 pages (see handout in class.)

2. School Social Work Conference Papers (10%) – Due March 9, 2020

Students are asked to attend one session at the UT Annual School Social Work Conference, being held in Austin at the Doubletree Hotel Feb. 24-26, and write a brief paper on your learnings (See Rubric below).

A conference session is typically 1.5 hours long (some are 3 hours long). There are many sessions to choose from on a wide range of topics related to schools and social services. A list of conference break-out sessions will be provided in class to assist in your paper selections.

Note about the School Social Work Conference:

Students who volunteer with the conference organizers for a 4-hour shift may attend the conference for free, without paying the registration fee. Students may attend as many sessions as they like, but attendance at just one is sufficient to complete this assignment. The full conference schedule will be provided to students in class. (Note: If you are unable to attend the conference, please see me to discuss an alternative class presentation topic of your choice.)

Grading Rubric for School Social Work Conference Paper:

Please cover these topics/questions in your written summary outline:

- Clearly state the name of the presentation and the presenter(s) and the date of the presentation.
- Describe the issue or problem that was the focus of the presentation.
- How does this issue or problem affect children/youth? How is this particular issue or problem relevant in a school?
- What efforts/solutions have been developed to address this issue or problem? Is the presenter(s) emphasizing a particular solution? Describe the steps/tasks/procedures the presenter recommends.
- Describe what information from the presentation was most important or interesting for you.
- Describe any questions that the presentation raised for you.

- Length of Paper:
 - Undergraduate Students: 2 pages
 - Graduate Level Students: 3-4 pages
- Graduate students only:
 - Read two peer review journal articles related to the topic of the presentation. Describe how the findings from the article support or challenge your learning from the presentation.

3. Mid-Term Take Home Exam (25%)

The Mid-Term Take Home Exam is aimed at synthesizing lecture, class discussion and reading information from the course to date. Please refrain from discussion of answers for this Take-Home exam with fellow classmates as this is not a collaborative assignment. More details will be given in class. Exam will be handed out in class on 3/2/2020 and will be due at the beginning of our class on 3/23/2020.

4. Multi-Disciplinary Training Group Presentation and Individual Written Outline(20%) – Due in class on 4/13/2020 and 4/20/2020

PURPOSE: One important role for school social workers is to provide education and training to multidisciplinary school staff. The presentation information should specifically be aimed at a broad audience of teachers, administrators, counselors and/or school support staff.

For this assignment, students will work in groups of 3 and develop a 30 minute training designed to increase school staff understanding about an issue related to student, family or campus need. (Please save 5 of the 30 minutes for Questions and Answers.) Topics can vary and focus on individual student need, school climate, classroom interventions, understanding of a population needs, etc. The trainings are not intended to teach school staff how to act as mental health providers, but to target how knowledge of the topic could enhance their roles within the school and contribute to child well-being/academic success.

Topics will be approved by the instructor.

Ideas include (but are not limited to):

- Collaborative Problem Solving (Stuart Ablon and/or Ross Greene)

- Bullying (Messaging and meaningful Interventions)
- Restorative Practices in Schools
- CPS 101 / when and how to report abuse or neglect
- Creating trauma sensitive classrooms
- Supporting students with grief and loss
- School Based Mental Health
- LGBTQX Supports
- School staff self-care
- Supportive Interventions for interpersonal violence
- Supporting immigrant students and families

RUBRIC FOR GRADING: Presentations will be graded based on content (thoroughness, accuracy, and relevance for audience) and presentation (clarity, organization, creativity). On the day of the presentation, each group also needs to submit a handout/resource page for class members and professor as well as copy of your PPT (if used) to professor by day of your presentation.

The presentation should also include the following points:

- Overview of the topic; including definitions of terms, incidence rates (when relevant), effects on student behavior, etc.
- Are there any legal /policy implications, long term positive or negative effects, associations with well-being, outcomes, etc.
- How does the issue affect academic success and/or learning? Why is it important for school staff to be aware of this issue?
- How will the information in the training help them to better meet the needs of students and/or the school community, and enhance learning?
- What are the specific take-aways from the training? What are you hoping teachers will “do?” What do you want to discourage them from doing?
- PROVIDE a tangible (handout, resource page) for school staff if they would like more information.
- Cite your sources in your powerpoint presentation and/or resource page provided in class
- Get Creative!!!
 - Students may use varied methods for their presentations, such as lecture with visuals (power points, handouts), or small group activities. Including some type of experiential activity for the audience is encouraged as are take-aways (handouts, videos, skill teach, etc.) that your colleagues can add to their professional ‘tool box’.
 - If video is used, it should not be more than 5 minutes of the presentation.

5. Final Take Home Exam (25%)

This is a final exam aimed at synthesizing lecture, class discussion and reading information throughout the course. Please refrain from discussion of answers for this final exam with fellow classmates as this is not a collaborative assignment. More details will be given in class. Exam will be handed out in class on 4/27/2020 and will be due at the beginning of our final class on 5/4/2020.

6. Class Participation (5%)- This grade includes attendance and active engagement in the class as described below under “Class Policies”.

VII. Class Policies

1. Class Attendance. Class attendance is expected every class period for the entire class period. Attendance will be noted each class. Any class material missed due to class absence is the students' sole responsibility.
2. Class Participation. Class Participation grade is based on attendance and active engagement in this class. Students are expected to complete the readings prior to class, and should be well prepared to participate in discussions and experiential learning assignments. As we learn about working in multi-dimensional teams, it is important for future social workers to be both self-aware and conscious of group dynamics. Therefore, appropriate contribution means for some, to learn to speak up, add comments or voice questions. For others, it means being sensitive and allowing others to contribute. Come prepared to take your own notes in class. Demonstration of active participation and engaged discussion showing comprehension of the material will be considered when assigning the class participation portion of the final grade.
3. General assignment requirements. All assignments must be typed in double spaced and have one inch margins. References/sources used in papers must be in APA format and be credible (No Wikipedia, etc.). If questions about the credibility of a reference arise, consult with the instructor. Specific instructions will be provided for each assignment. If students are unclear about how to best complete an assignment, please consult with the instructor prior to the due date via email, phone or arranging to meet in person. Grading on any written assignments will take into account the quality of writing as well as the content. Written material should be carefully proof read and errors (punctuation, typographical, spelling) corrected. It is also an expectation that you bring a level of depth to your writing that includes independent critical thinking, integration of information read/discussed and appropriate citation of sources. Good writing requires a reiterative process that must be followed if quality is to improve. Students are strongly encouraged to read their papers several times and, if possible, have someone else proofread them. Details on APA (American Psychological Association) Style (6th edition) can be found at <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>
4. Assignment due dates. Except under unusual circumstances, assignments must be completed on the due date and turned in during class on the due date.

Late assignments will result in a deduction of 5 points for each day that the assignment is late.

5. Professionalism. Social Work students should consider that they will be representing professional social work practice as well as The University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work while in the classroom, the University community, and the broader area communities. Therefore, it is expected that students will conduct themselves professionally in the classroom, and maintain the same boundaries and standards that they would in a place of employment. Professionalism includes things such as proper attire and refraining from the use of electronics (laptops, tablets) while in the classroom. Cell phones must be silenced and may NOT be in use during class hours under any circumstances, except during a break. Respect for one another and the space is essential.
6. Confidentiality. Information shared in the class about community settings and/or a client is considered to be confidential according to the NASW Code of Ethics regarding the sharing of information for supervisory and educational purposes. Part of professional accountability includes treating others with respect and courtesy. Within the class setting this respect and courtesy entails listening to the opinions and concerns of others with openness, offering suggestions and ideas in a positive and respectful manner, and a willingness to promote group cohesiveness in the learning environment.

7. Self-Care. Please monitor your reactions to the course material. If you become personally distressed in response to course content, please notify me and seek support on campus, or in the community, if needed. Should you become emotionally upset by course content, you may leave class to take a break without explanation or penalty.
8. Class Performance. If a student is concerned about his/her class performance/grade, I am more than willing to work with you individually to advise how to improve your course grades prior to the end of the semester. Office hours are to be utilized for this purpose. Students are responsible for making contact with me to arrange an individual office hour appointment.
9. Group Work. Working cooperatively and collaboratively is an essential skill in Social work. In light of this, you will have opportunities to work in pairs and small groups at various points along the way. If you experience conflict or challenge in a pair or small group, it is my expectation that you will work together directly and respectfully to resolve any issues. I am willing to serve as a consultant if pairs/groups have worked diligently to resolve their difference but have been unsuccessful.

VIII. University Policies

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS HONOR CODE. The core values of The University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the university is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT AND CIVILITY IN THE CLASSROOM. The professor expects students to act as professionals in class. This means students should arrive on time for class, be prepared to participate in the class discussion, and show respect for one another's opinions. A course brings together a group of diverse individuals with various backgrounds. Students are influenced and shaped by such factors as race, ethnicity, gender, sex, physical abilities, religious and political beliefs, national origins, and sexual orientations, among others. We expect to learn from each other in an atmosphere of positive engagement and mutual respect. This atmosphere includes working intentionally to recognize and dismantle racism, sexism, heterosexism, and ableism in the classroom. Social Work also deals with complex and controversial issues. These issues may be challenging and uncomfortable, and it would be impossible to offer a substantive classroom experience that did not include potentially difficult conversations relating to challenging issues. In this environment, we will be exposed to diverse ideas and opinions, and sometimes we will not agree with the ideas expressed by others. Nevertheless, the professor requires that students engage one another with civility, respect, and professionalism.

UNANTICIPATED DISTRESS. Students may experience unexpected and/or distressing reactions to course readings, videos, conversations, and assignments. If so, students are encouraged to inform the professor. The professor can be responsive and supportive regarding students' participation in course assignments and activities, but students are responsible for communicating clearly what kind of support is desired. If counseling is needed, students may contact a service provider of their choosing, including the UT Counseling Center at 512-471-3515 or online at <https://cmhc.utexas.edu/>.

POLICY ON SOCIAL MEDIA AND PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION. Public social networks are not private. Even when open only to approved or invited members, users cannot be certain that privacy will exist among the general membership of sites. If social work students choose to participate in such forums, please assume that anything posted can be seen, read, and critiqued. What is said, posted, linked to, commented on, uploaded, subscribed to, etc., can be accessed and archived, posing potential harm to professional reputations and prospective careers.

Social work students who use social media (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) and other forms of electronic communication (e.g. blogs) must be mindful of how their communication may be perceived by clients, colleagues, faculty, and others. Social work students are expected to make every effort to minimize material which could be considered inappropriate for a professional social worker in training. Because of this, social work students are advised to manage security settings at their most private levels and avoid posting information/photos or using any language that could jeopardize their professional image.

Students are asked to consider the amount of personal information posted on these sites and are obliged to block any client access to involvement in the students' social networks. Client material should not be referred to in any form of electronic media, including any information that might lead to the identification of a client or compromise client confidentiality in any way. Additionally, students must critically evaluate any material that is posted regarding community agencies and professional relationships, as certain material could violate the standards set by the School of Social Work, the Texas Code of Conduct for Social Workers, and/or the NASW Code of Ethics.

Social work students should consider that they will be representing professional social work practice as well as The University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work program while in the classroom, the university community, and the broader area communities.

POLICY ON SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY. Students who violate University rules on scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and/or dismissal from the University. Since such dishonesty harms the individual, all students, and the integrity of the University, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced. For further information, the student may refer to the Web Site of the Student Judicial Services, Office of the Dean of Students: <http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/sjs/>.

USE OF COURSE MATERIALS. The materials used in this course, including, but not limited to exams, quizzes, and homework assignments, are copyright protected works. Any unauthorized duplication of the course materials is a violation of federal law and may result in disciplinary action being taken against the student. Additionally, the sharing of course materials without the specific, express approval of the professor may be a violation of the University's Student Honor Code and an act of academic dishonesty, which could result in further disciplinary action. This sharing includes, among other things, uploading class materials to websites for the purpose of distributing those materials to other current or future students.

DOCUMENTED DISABILITY STATEMENT. Any student who requires special accommodations must obtain a letter that documents the disability from the Services for Students with Disabilities area of the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement (471- 6259 voice or 471-4641 TTY for users who are deaf or hard of hearing). A student should present the letter to the professor at the beginning of the semester so that needed accommodations can be discussed and followed. The student should remind the professor of any testing accommodations no later than five business days before an exam. For more information, visit: <http://diversity.utexas.edu/disability/>.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS. By UT Austin policy, students must notify the professor of a pending absence at least fourteen days prior to the date of observance of a religious holy day. If the student must miss a class, examination, work assignment, or project in order to observe a religious holy day, the professor will give the student an opportunity to complete the missed work within a reasonable time after the absence.

TITLE IX REPORTING. In accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the University of Texas at Austin is committed to maintaining a learning environment that is free from discriminatory conduct on the basis of sex <https://titleix.utexas.edu/>. Faculty, field instructors, staff, and/or teaching assistants in their supervisory roles are mandated reporters of incidents of sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual violence, stalking, dating violence, or any other forms of sexual misconduct. Students who report such incidents will be informed of University resources. Incidents will be reported to the University's Title IX Coordinator. Further information, including student resources related to Title IX, may also be found at <https://titleix.utexas.edu/>.

CAMPUS CARRY POLICY. The University's policy on concealed firearms may be found here: <https://campuscarry.utexas.edu>. You also may find this information by accessing the Quick Links menu on the School's website.

CLASSROOM CONFIDENTIALITY. Information shared in class about agencies, clients, and personal matters is considered confidential per the NASW Code of Ethics on educational supervision and is protected by regulations of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) as well. As such, sharing this information with individuals outside of the educational context is not permitted. Violations of confidentiality could result in actions taken according to the policies and procedure for review of academic performance located in sections 3.0, 3.1, and 3.2 of the Standards for Social Work Education.

USE OF E-MAIL FOR OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO STUDENTS. Email is recognized as an official mode of university correspondence; therefore, students are responsible for reading their email for university and course-related information and announcements. Students are responsible for keeping the university informed about a change of e-mail address. Students should check their e-mail regularly and frequently—daily, but at minimum twice a week—to stay current with university-related communications, some of which may be time-sensitive. Students can find UT Austin's policies and instructions for updating their e-mail address at <http://www.utexas.edu/its/policies/emailnotify.php>.

SAFETY. As part of professional social work education, students may have assignments that involve working in agency settings and/or the community. As such, these assignments may present some risks. Sound choices and caution may lower risks inherent to the profession. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of and adhere to policies and practices related to agency and/or community safety. Students should notify the professor regarding any safety concerns.

BEHAVIOR CONCERNS ADVICE LINE (BCAL). If students have concerns about their behavioral health, or if they are concerned about the behavioral health of someone else, students may use the Behavior Concerns Advice Line to discuss by phone their concerns. This service is provided through a partnership between the Office of the Dean of Students, the Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC), the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), and The University of Texas Police Department (UTPD). Call 512-232-5050 or visit <http://www.utexas.edu/safety/bcal>.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION POLICY. Occupants of buildings on the UT Austin campus are required to evacuate and assemble outside when a fire alarm is activated or an announcement is made. Please be aware of the following policies regarding evacuation:

- Familiarize yourself with all exit doors in the classroom and the building. Remember that the nearest exit door may not be the one you used when entering the building.
- If you require assistance to evacuate, inform the professor in writing during the first week of class.
- In the event of an evacuation, follow the professor’s instructions.
- Do not re-enter a building unless you are given instructions by the Austin Fire Department, the UT Austin Police Department, or the Fire Prevention Services office.
